

Eligibility: To submit a proposal, a student must be in good standing, be registered for at least one graduate-level credit during the semester the proposal is presented (including summer) and have an error-free iPOS on file. Consult the SOS Graduate Handbook or email sosgradadvising@asu.edu for details on the policies.

Instructions:

- The student schedules a committee meeting with their committee and reserves a room through the SOS Graduate Policies and Forms webpage: <https://schoolofsustainability.asu.edu/student-life/graduate-policies-procedures-forms/>
- The student brings this form to the meeting. Once the committee approves the proposal, the full committee must sign and mark their approval on Part II. This form can be circulated via DocuSign by the graduate coordinator upon request.
- If the committee requires additional work post-defense, the chair or co-chair should fill in Part III and sign upon completion.
- The student submits this form to the WGHL 108 front desk and sends a copy of the proposal to sosgradadvising@asu.edu. The graduate coordinator will enter results into the student's Plan of Study (iPOS).
